New York, June 16.—Tesreau shut out the Pirates to-day, 3 to 0, this being the fifth time he has won by whitewashing his opponents this season. Robertson, McGraw's recruit outfielder, proved his value to the locals by driving the ball into the right field for a home run. The Giants scored two in the sixth on two singles, a hit batter and Carey's error.

BRAVES WIN WEIRD GAME

Boston, June 16.—In a weird game of ball, full of free passes, in which five pitchers were used, the Braves defeated the Cubs to-day, 7 to 5. James started off for Boston, but couldn't hit the plate, and was benched in the fourth inning, after issuing seven passes. Crutcher finished the game, and did very well, except that he hit the Cubs' pitcher for two runs on a single and two doubles. Vaughn lasted nine innings, when weakness caused his retirement. It was a very odd day, and the former Boston player was presented with a silver service and a huge basket of flowers.

REDS HIT ALLEN HARD

Brooklyn, June 16.—The Reds took the first of the Eastern trip to-day, 7 to 1, by driving Allen from the box in the third, and overcoming a four-run lead made by the locals off Klingling. Clarke's home run in the fourth put the visitors ahead, and Bates' circuit clutch in the eighth, with one on, clinched the game. The Reds were sent to the clubhouse after a run-in with Empire Edison. ST. LOUIS DEFEATS PHILLIES

Philadelphia, June 16.—St. Louis won the seventh game of the Eastern trip to-day, when Philadelphia was defeated by a 4 to 3 score. Although Perrett was battered hard by the Phillies, he managed to keep the hits scattered enough to come out a victor over Wagner. Lindner, who was hit at the bat by Miller's muf of his foul fly lifted the ball over the right field fence. Score.

GASTON'S WORK IN BOX
GIVES GAME TO NORFOLK

Seven Errors Made by Newport News Team, Tars Winning by Score of 7 to 0.

Newport News, Va., June 26.—Gaston's brilliant pitching and opportune hitting gave Norfolk an easy victory over Newport News in the second game of the series to-day, 7 to 0. An unassisted double play by Thrasher, who made a shortstop catch of Davis's liner back of second and doubled up Gondoli, was a feature. After McMahon's single to right, with one on in the third, hopped over Metcalf's head, and both runners scored. The locals blew up, making seven errors behind Mullen, as well as misjudging several line drives. Gaston allowed but four hits, and only four balls were hit out of the infield on him. Score:

Richmond, Va., June 16.—In a thirteen-inning pitchers' battle between Hill and Foxen, Richmond won out, 2 to 1, this afternoon. This was Rotary Day, and it is one that will live long in the memory of Roanoke. Foxen was most effective in the pinches, and made the league record of the season.

Hill kept his hits well scattered, but the breaks were with Richmond, and the score tells the story. The game was a slow one, but was free of ragged fielding, and there was no heavy hitting in the first frame. Roanoke handled Richmond in one, two, three order. The Tigers then started in with a go. Cook first up, hit for a clean single to right. After pitching to Moren, Foxen attempted to catch Cook off first, and threw the ball away. Cook went to third. Moren drew a pass; Graham was up and Woerd attempted to catch Moren going to second, Newton dropped the ball and Cook scored. Moren was safe. Graham fanned, retiring the side.

There was nothing doing in the scoring line until the seventh, when Richmond tied things up. Bunting scored, went out on a fly to Immacher, who hit safely between first and second. Snyder laced one out to deep left for three sacks, scoring Roche. Gray fanned, and Newton retired the side on a grounder to first, and was out.

Roanoke in the last half of the ninth was in striking distance of victory. Breslin struck out, Graham was out on a fly to third. Goalby skunked to center, where he was caught by Hill. But was unable to produce. He fanned. There was little doing in the next three innings, but in the "lucky" thirteenth Ryan's Colts capped the game. Newton opened up with a two-base hit. When Bird threw in from center Goalby received the throw, but was hurt in collision with Newton going to the bag. Raley hit to short, Newton fanned, and the game was over. The winning run on a long fly by Berger to right. Woerd retired the side. The attendance was a record-smasher. Richmond not only won the game, but pitcher Grind was the proud possessor of a fine pig, having caught him. The little fellow, well greased, was turned loose among the players of both teams. This was one of the stunts pulled by the Richmond. Score:

Superior Stick Work Wins for Portsmouth
Portsmouth, Va., June 16.—An interesting and closely-contested game between Portsmouth and Petersburg to-day was won by the former by the score of 4 to 3. Superior stick work accounts for the victory. The "Trackers" bobbled behind Hoch's excellent pitching in the second, and it counted for three runs. After that he was invincible, despite errors. Hirsch was reached by the Pirates in the third for two runs, in the fifth for one, and won the game in the seventh. Local fans are scarce still at the ball park, the games being played to empty benches. The score:

Richmond's Offer Refused by Dunn
Baltimore, June 16.—Denying a report to-night that the Baltimore International League team had been sold to Richmond capitalists, and that the franchise would be transferred to that city, Jack Dunn, president of the Orioles, admitted that he had received an offer from Richmond interests for his players and franchise, but had refused it. It is understood Dunn was offered $12,500.

SUPERIOR STICK WORK
WINS FOR PORTSMOUTH

Portsmouth, Va., June 16.—An interesting and closely-contested game between Portsmouth and Petersburg to-day was won by the former by the score of 4 to 3. Superior stick work accounts for the victory. The "Trackers" bobbled behind Hoch's excellent pitching in the second, and it counted for three runs. After that he was invincible, despite errors. Hirsch was reached by the Pirates in the third for two runs, in the fifth for one, and won the game in the seventh. Local fans are scarce still at the ball park, the games being played to empty benches. The score:

Portsmouth. A. B. R. H. O. A. E.
Boyd, ss., 4 2 1 1 6 2
O'Keefe, cf., 2 1 1 0 0
Whitted, lf., 2 0 1 0 0
Riley, 1b., 4 1 2 1 0
Baxter, 3b., 4 0 2 2 2
Troy, 2b., 4 0 1 0 1
